Repeating Courses:

Beginning Fall 2016, Texas residents attempting a course more than twice at Collin College are subject to regular tuition plus an additional $50 per semester credit hour. Undergraduate courses attempted at Collin College with a graded status of A, B, C, D, F, I, W (withdrawals after census) and AU (Audit) will be evaluated for repeat limits. Refer to the Collin College website for a complete list of courses exempt from the course repeat tuition and how to qualify for exemptions from the higher tuition rate. <https://www.collin.edu/gettingstarted/register/withdrawal.html>

Attendance Policy:

Attendance in an online course is achieved when you log onto the course on a regular basis to participate in discussions, grammar quizzes, and to submit writing assignments. You should log onto the course to accomplish these tasks at least THREE TIMES A WEEK. Failure to do so constitutes absence from the class. As with all college courses, absences usually result in a negative impact on student grades. IN ORDER TO BE CONSIDERED AS HAVING PARTICIPATED IN THIS CLASS, YOU MUST HAVE COMPLETED AT LEAST ONE ASSIGNMENT.

Collin College Academic Policies: See the current Collin Student Handbook

- The College District may initiate disciplinary proceedings against a student accused of scholastic dishonesty.
- Scholastic dishonesty may involve, but is not limited to, one or more of the following acts: cheating, plagiarism, collusion, use of annotated texts or teacher's editions, use of information about exams posted on the Internet or electronic medium, and/or falsifying academic records.
- Collin faculty are required to report alleged violations of scholastic dishonesty to the Dean of Student Development, who then investigates the case, and renders an administrative decision.
- Faculty are not allowed to assign a grade to the work in question until the Dean of Student Development renders a decision
- Students found responsible for scholastic dishonesty offenses will receive an authorized disciplinary penalty from the office of the Dean of Student Development.

- Additionally, students found responsible for scholastic dishonesty will be assigned a penalty in this class that ranges from a grade of “F” on the assignment to a grade of “F” for the course

Minimum Technology Requirement:

The minimum system requirement for Canvas will be listed in your Canvas course.

Minimum Student Skills:

Students should be able to access a Website when given an address, use the features of the Web browser, download files, attach files to e-mails, and use word processing software

Because this course is conducted on-line through Canvas, it is presumed that students have knowledge of computers and computer terminology, an understanding of how to open, post, upload, and attach documents, and the ability to maneuver through Canvas and the course

Netiquette Expectations:

1. Standards of courtesy and respect must be maintained at all times in our online “classroom.” Join in the discussion, but remember that this is still a “classroom” setting and that respect and consideration are crucial for any intellectual discussion.
2. Discussion areas are the place for intelligent and respectful airing of ideas. Name-calling and personal attacks are not permitted.
3. Any violation of the standards of appropriate behavior will be reported to the Dean of Students and appropriate disciplinary action will be taken by the college.
